

COMMERCIAL.

Honolulu, June 30, 1868.

The Hawaian big blossom is at hand from Marshall Island, and brings us cargo worth 50,000 gallons of coconut oil.

The steamer Kamehameha left at the usual hour yesterday, taking an unusually large number of passengers. The time table for the quarter will be found in our columns to-day.

The D. C. Morris, of the Hawaian Packet Line, arrived on Sunday morning, with merchandise, and passengers to Walker & Allen. She brings San Francisco dates of the 14th, the mail having been passed by the H. W. Wood, which sailed at the same time.

Our judgements as to the safety of the San Francisco market, quota a decline in flour, bread, butter, oils, flour, etc., sugar, dried Hawaian choice was disposed of at private sale at $12.00. Mackerel, and whale oil, Palm oil at 20c. A better feeling in coffee, and no prospect of an advance.

The sugar by the H. W. Wood were sold at auction for account of Underwriters, and purchased by the San Francisco and Pacific Refinery, $300 bags @ $6.75, and 150 bags @ $7.10, which were sent to the Underwriters $22.

The D. C. Morris is advertised in another column to sail on the 2d.

The last Comet sailed on the 2d, with a full cargo and a few passengers.

The State Hotel had to load grain at Baker's Island. We also hear of the following vessels being chartered for the same island, and that they are to leave, ship Florina, from Honolulu, July 1st; Montebello, from Liverpool, on the 8th of September, and Saintbury, from Newhaven, the 1st October.

The last Charlottesville was due in San Francisco when the Morris left, and was to follow in the line. The H. W. Wood has a full cargo—beefs, lime and general merchandise.

The Quarterly Customs Statement shows a large gain in our Revenue Exports.
